

Doctoral Summer School 2020 Draft Programme

7-8 September 2020
Mary Ward House

Monday 07 September 2020

Please note that this is a draft version of the programme and is subject to change. We are planning to hold the event face to face at the moment and closely monitoring the current situation. Depending on how the pandemic unfolds, we may condense the sessions and conduct the school virtually on the same dates and hold a day in person in early 2021.*

09.30 Registration; Tea and coffee

10.10 Welcome and kick-off

*Professor John Strachan, Pro Vice-Chancellor, Research & Enterprise, Bath Spa University & Director of GuildHE Research
Alex Bols, Deputy CEO, GuildHE*

10.15 Ice-breaker session

*Alex Bols, Deputy CEO, GuildHE
Matthew Guest, Policy Manager, GuildHE*

10.30 Reaching out to others: Collaboration, engagement, and impact until A highly interactive session that will be facilitated the National Coordinating Centre for

13.30 Public Engagement (NCCPE)

The session is a mix of presentation, interaction and facilitated conversation aimed at increasing understanding of engagement and impact.

There will be a tea and coffee break part way through this session.

13.30 Lunch

14.15 Stream Sessions

until Two runs of mini workshops

16.00 Open Access, Intellectual Property, UK Policy Landscape

16.00 Coffee break

16.15 Engaging with the Parliament

Until Interactive session with Parliamentary Office of Science and Technology (POST)

17.30

18.30 The Summer School Dinner

for The Betjeman Arms, 53, St Pancras International Station, Euston Rd, Kings Cross,

19.00 London N1C 4QL (TBC)

The dinner will feature a talk on “Knowledge exchange in action”

Dr Brian Lobel, Professor of Theatre and Performance, Rose Bruford College

Tuesday 08 September 2020

Morning Session

Participants will return to Mary Ward House to start the day.

Drinks and refreshments will be available

09.30 Reflections from Day 1

In groups, participants identify something new they have learnt so far, something that has been confirmed, and an action they are going to take. Feedback to the room.

10.00 Research beyond the Academy/ Research career pathways

Focusing on how organisations engage with and stimulate, academic and non-academic research, and how research skills inform their work, with examples from current projects and partnerships.

(All speakers TBC)

Crafts/ Design Council

Institute for Community Studies / The Young Foundation / NCVO

Early Career Researcher Maybe linked to the British Science Association

The British Academy

Health Foundation

11.30 Coffee Break

12.00 Research Round Tables #1: Your projects

Hosted by panel members and GuildHE Research.

Participants give short introductions on their research to each other on tables

The Table Host will prompt some Q&A

13.00 Lunch provided at Mary Ward House

13.45 Walk to Wellcome Collection

14.00 Visit to the Wellcome Collection

A guided tour plus a possible discussion on research culture

15.45 Walk back to Mary Ward House

16.00 Where next? Research Reflection - Bringing it all together

Participants share next steps for their career.

Professor John Strachan will also offer some thoughts at the end of the session.

16.30 Close